Mission Statement

We strive to be a welcoming, worshipping community of faith, helping people discover and deepen their relationship with God, growing as disciples of Christ, and reaching out in faith and loving service.
Dear Church,

Each year, on a blog I follow called Patheos, a question is asked at the beginning of Holy Week, which their bloggers are invited to respond to in 100 words or less. One year the question was, “Why do you need the resurrection?” I have spent a lot of time thinking about that question, because it is ever-evolving. It hits me in a different way each year.

It was on Easter morning of my Junior Year in High School that a good friend of mine died unexpectedly in her sleep. She had Diabetes that went undiagnosed, had been losing weight over the course of several months and no one had an answer why. The phone rang after church on Sunday morning and I heard a friend’s voice: “Jessie died.” I could only respond, “Who?” I knew someone named Jessie, but not someone whose name could possibly fit in that sentence. It was the second major death in my life. (The first took place just about a year earlier: a close family friend’s cancer death, and I was still grieving). None of it made any sense. That Easter Sunday, many of my friends and I gathered to grieve. We didn’t know how to express our emotions about break-ups and bad grades, let alone death. One friend punched a hole in his bedroom wall. Many friends sat silently for hours. Others made inappropriate jokes in hopes of breaking through the pain. Some of us wondered if and when we might die. Some of us drew closer to our parents. Some drew further away. I needed the resurrection because it was my second major, tragic death in just a little over a year, and I was 16, and I needed to know that there was something beyond that.

It was also on Easter week of my Senior Year in High School that I went to Paris for the first time (the first, it would be, of many over the next five years). My heart pounded as I stood next to the graves of artists and writers I admired—Proust, Delacroix, Caillebotte. I needed the resurrection because their influence became alive in me, even so long after their death. It was a formative trip for my relationship with art, with traveling, and with self-expression, and with God.

It was during the loooonggg Easter Vigil at St. Cronan’s Catholic Church in St. Louis (one of the churches of my heart, but a story for another time), that I felt sweet baby Evelyn go wild in my belly for the first time. I needed the resurrection because I needed to know it was okay to bring a new baby into a broken world.

Now that I am a pastor through the telling of the death and resurrection, I look out at a sanctuary of God’s people and I am keenly aware of the dance of life and death. I grieve losses and yet rejoice at the ways in which life has been made new. I ache while you ache through all of the difficulties and tragedies, and I celebrate the growth on the journey. This year, I will look out on the congregation at LCC and remember the congregation I looked out over just last Easter-- an entirely different one, filled with God’s people who I knew and cherished and loved in Wisconsin, and I will think of the ways I have grown to know and cherish and love you all here so quickly and naturally.

I could go on, telling you all the different reasons that I need the resurrection, in far more than 100 words. But I want to share with you this poem by Kara Root, as she responds to the question in 100 words or less, and looks at times in her own life that she has needed the promise that life is stronger than death. I hope it will be as meaningful to you as it has been for me.
I need the Resurrection because my sister is sick and can't afford insurance, because I've told a weeping Haitian mom, "No, I can't take your son home with me." because I've been rushed off a Jerusalem street so a robot could blow up a bag that could've blown us up. because I've exploded in rage and watched their tiny faces cloud with hurt. because evil is pervasive and I participate. I need the Resurrection because it promises that in the end all wrongs are made right. Death loses. Hope triumphs. And Life and Love Prevail.

May the remaining days of Lent be meaningful, and may Resurrection be made known to you on Easter Morning.

Because of Christ,
Pastor Joanna
March saw a flurry of musical activity at LCC (as well as some early spring snow flurries), starting with an electric Mardi Gras service featuring a Dixieland band helmed by our own Dave Kasper, and a joint choral offering from LCC’s and Trinity’s choirs. Our Talent Show and Silent Auction raised over $5,000 for the Festival Arts Fund and, as importantly, moved me deeply as an act of community which, while I’ve come to expect this from our church, makes it no less remarkable. CityMusic Cleveland performed a unique, innovative program in our Sanctuary. And all the while, our music program has featured voices, bells, and instruments helping us partake in our Lenten journey.

April shows no sign of slowing down, with a Les Délices concert Saturday, April 6, another joint service with Trinity for Palm Sunday, a sacred remembrance of Maundy Thursday, and then a joyous celebration of Christ’s resurrection on Easter Sunday, featuring a brass ensemble. And our creative team and cast are hard at work on this year’s Youth Musical, You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown, which runs the weekend of Palm Sunday. Our youth are embracing this classic show and they are bringing out the best in each other; reserve your tickets now to come see it!

In the midst of this whirlwind, I decided to take a slight look back into history, prompted by my programming several hymns by Fanny Crosby. If you look at the “byline” in nearly any English-language hymnal, you will find her name credited frequently as the lyricist for such old gospel favorites as “All the Way My Savior Leads Me,” “Blessed Assurance,” “I Am Thine, O Lord,” and “Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior.” This is maybe not surprising, given that she wrote more than 8,000 hymns and gospel songs, making her one of the most prolific hymn writers in history.

More improbable still is that Crosby was blind nearly from birth and lost her father when she was six months old. These might be described as setbacks, even for someone who could trace her lineage to the Mayflower. She had a very healthy perspective on it, though, writing “It seemed intended by the blessed providence of God that I should be blind all my life, and I thank him for the dispensation. If perfect earthly sight were offered me tomorrow, I would not accept it. I might not have sung hymns to the praise of God if I had been distracted by the beautiful and interesting things about me.” This is an amazing statement of acceptance about a challenge in life which has caused many hardship and suffering, not to mention indicative of a deep faith which fueled her writing.

I encourage you to visit online resources to learn more about Fanny Crosby’s remarkable life, but even if you do not get a chance, keep an eye out for her lyrics next time you sing them. Some might find them mawkish by modern standards, but to me they are simple, direct, and expressions of a kindred spirit we can all share in.

Thanks for reading,

Ben
At LCC we are in the process of actively realizing our Visioning Plan. As with any dynamic organization, the needs of the church change. With that in mind, the members of the Administrative Board would like to bring to your attention the changes that are directly impacting our committee and how that impacts you.

The Administrative Board was originally created to provide a checks-and-balances system for the life of the church. According to the LCC Constitution, the Admin Board was tasked to “…hold the Executive Team accountable for the flow of ministry within the church, ensuring that all activities and staff within the church are enhancing the ministry of the church.” (Article X, Sec. 1) The needs have evolved, and though the function originally set out is an important one, there is a broadening of responsibility that is warranted at this time.

The five members of the Administrative Board - Stephanie Fries, Meghan Galloway, Brad Humphreys, Kristen Humphreys, and Cathy Spicer - have been meeting quarterly with Pastor Joanna beginning this last fall. As we have discussed more of the structure and needs of the church, at Pastor Joanna’s suggestion, we are shifting gears to become more of a Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. This is present in many UCC congregations, as well as other denominations. In essence, a PPRC works closely with the pastor concerning their relationship with the congregation and the entire work of the church. The committee is also sensitive to the opinions and concerns of the congregation concerning the pastor.

We are evolving to become a sounding board for Pastor Joanna, and we are responsible for listening to the needs and concerns of the congregation. Think of us at the “Go To Team.” All five of us are open to hearing your thoughts or concerns with regard to the life of the church. If you have questions or concerns that need to be addressed, we can seek out an answer or direct the concern to the appropriate staff member or volunteer coordinator.

One point of clarity: we currently remain a separate entity from the Executive Team. Our role is strictly to work in the capacity of keeping a pulse on the relationship between Pastor Joanna and the congregation.

If you would like to reach out to any of the Admin Board/PPRC in the future, please seek us out after Sunday worship, or feel free to text, call, or email.

Helping others find life in water...
This church year, the Children’s Offering each Sunday will be donated to the United Church of Christ Mozambique (UCCM), a UCC organization that helps bring clean water to areas of Mozambique through the construction of cisterns for communities in need of clean/safe drinking water. The LCC Outreach Team has committed to making this happen for these communities through our support.
(When you use these envelopes, please be sure to put your child’s name on the back so that we can add this contribution to your Family’s Pledge for the year. Also, this gives your child a chance to feel good about giving, when he/she puts the envelope in the Miracle Jar each Sunday.)

A huge thank you to everyone who participated in our first ever Share the Love for Haynes fundraiser we held in February. Generous families from both LCC and Haynes donated $1,233. What an awesome outpouring of love for our beloved school! Thank you so much!
Our school year will end the 3rd week of May and we will say goodbye to our 4 year olds. It is always bitter sweet as we know how successful they will be in kindergarten but also how much we will miss them. We are so lucky to have such wonderful families. It warms my heart to work with them everyday.

Our LCC 2018-2019 Faith Journey Scripture this year is taken from the Book of Amos 5:24, “But let justice roll down like the waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.”

We know that April showers bring May flowers, so let’s find appreciation for the rainy days during this month. And let us keep those, who experience flooding due to spring thaws, in our prayers. With the raindrops and the spring thaw, let us be reminded of ways we can bring justice and righteousness into our daily lives, for not only ourselves, but for others.

CONFIRMATION 2018-2019

Our 11 Confirmands continue to meet with Pastor Joanna after church. We ALL learned a lot from Karen Wagner at the Cleveland Museum of Art on Saturday, March 9th. Karen showed us all of the varied ways religion/Christianity has impacted art since ancient times up to the present. Thank You, Karen!

Confirmands will meet with Patti K during their FF time on Sunday, March 31st to plan their Confirmation Banner and continue to meet with Pastor Joanna as scheduled.

Circle your calendars now for a Confirmation “Work” Day on Saturday, May 4th from 10:00am-1:00pm. (We will share lunch together after our work is completed!)

A Ministry to Serve

The Adult Faith Formation Team

In keeping with the Mission Statement of our church, hopes you will take the initiative to venture out, learn more, and come back ready to discuss with your church family the questions/thoughts/worries/and suggestions you have to the all-pervasive problem of the many injustices imposed upon marginalized people—young and old—not only in the U.S., but around our world. This year, we will extend our Sacred Conversation to include two additional groups of marginalized people as we explore Gender Identity and Prison Reform.

Lenten Calendar

Our Mardi Gras Sunday worship, Lenten Gathering/Station Walk, and Taize/Labyrinth Walk were all well attended and very meaningful ways to continue preparing our hearts, minds, and bodies for the Good News! Book: White Chrysanthemum (c) 2018 by Mary Lynn Bracht

Nancy Gibbs will lead the review and discussion of White Chrysanthemum (c) 2018, a debut novel by Mary Lynn Bracht. This story of historical fiction centers around two Korean sisters separated by World War II. Korea, 1943, Hana (age 16) has lived her entire life under Japanese occupation that denies her native language and culture. As a haenyeo, a female diver of the sea, she supports her family by diving to search for abalone and oysters. She enjoys her independence until the day Hana saves her younger sister (Emi - age 9) from a Japanese soldier and is herself captured and transported to Manchuria. There she is forced to become a “comfort woman” in a Japanese military brothel. The language is blunt. South Korea, 2011, Emi has spent more than sixty years with survivor’s guilt trying to forget the sacrifice her sister made, but she must confront the past to discover peace. Hana’s narrative covers the war years, while in Emi’s chapters it is 2011, and the elderly Emi is still looking for her sister. Growing up in Texas with a South Korean mother the author based White Chrysanthemum on true stories from her mother and her community of expat friends. It was only in 1993 that the Japanese government acknowledged the existence of comfort women - this despite the fact that the United Nations estimates that 200,000 women were forced into sexual slavery for the Japanese army.

SECOND SATURDAY
APRIL 13TH

Women in our church family are invited to gather on Saturday, April 13th at 9am in the Parlor for Second Saturday; an hour of conversation, reflection and prayer. Take some time to get to know women of all ages in our church as we navigate through our spiritual journeys.

FAMILY PROMISE SPRING SHOWER

Lakewood Congregational Church has a long history of partnering with Family Promise in their mission to inspire and empower homeless families to transform their lives, become self-sufficient and fulfill their promise. For many years, we housed homeless families in our building for four weeks every year. A few years ago, they moved to a permanent site on E. 152nd Street where families in a housing crisis are provided shelter for up to 90 days along with case management services during their stay and after they move out. The agency helps over 100 homeless families each year secure independent housing and the means to sustain it.

You can help Family Promise by being a part of our Spring Shower during the month of April. We will be collecting twin sheets (new or gently used), twin blankets, new pillows, laundry baskets, laundry soap, toilet cleaner and toilet brush, multi purpose spray cleaner, 13 gallon garbage bags, paper towels and toilet paper. If you don’t have time to shop, you may also make a donation to LCC indicating it is for Family Promise and we will purchase these items for donation. Our event kicks off with a special coffee hour on April 7th! There will be a designated spot for donations in the West Clifton hallway.

If you have any questions, please contact Vicki Smigelski at vsmigelski@kksg.com or at 216-789-5020.
