memorial DAY
Monday, May 27
Dear Church,

In my house, my kids know I have a daily (or several times daily) saying: “I’m not an Octopus Mom.” I use it when all three kids are asking me to do eight things at once. Get the milk, unwrap the snack, help with potty, open the door, put on the shoes, play Uno, “color with me,” “can we go for a walk?”

“I’m not an Octopus Mom!”

One Sunday recently, between worship and a meeting, my oldest child’s wiggly front tooth started bleeding excessively. She was scared and confused, and she came looking for me with tears and her hand cupped over her mouth. I am very blessed to have a partner-in-parenting who wrangles our three kids to, through, and from church each Sunday morning, but in this moment my daughter wanted mommy, and in a moment when my child needs me, I have no other faithful option than to drop everything and tend to that need. This will always be true. My family comes first. I hope it will be true in your life, too.

I’m reminded frequently that I’m not an Octopus Pastor, either. I would love to do everything, all at once, all in a timely manner, all correctly. But I do indeed have only two hands, only one brain, and only one (great-big) heart. In this pivotal season in the life of Lakewood Congregational Church, I am finding myself called in many different directions: the search team for our new Children, Youth, and Family Ministries position; the imperative conversations about stewardship practices and right-sizing our church’s budget to more effectively match our ministries; planning and leading meaningful worship experiences; providing pastoral care; meeting with visitors and others who would like to get to know the church better; writing Columns articles and letters; attending meetings; building community relationships; participating in and encouraging the teamwork of our amazing staff... AND finding time for personal reflection and prayer so that as a spiritual leader, I maintain a strong, solid faith and relationship with our God who has called me to this work.

I want to be sure you know I am trying my absolute best to balance everything God is calling me to do as your Senior Pastor, but I remain fully human and not one bit Octopus or Savior. I love each one of you beyond what you know, and think of you each far more often than you realize. I love our coffee dates, our happy hours, our office chats, our home visits... and truly want to be a part of all of those conversations with you. But no pastor is an Octopus Pastor, no matter how badly they wish they were. Instead we do the best we can each day, while allowing the Grace of God to enter in and do the rest.

Putting into practice the art of balancing these callings is possible only when we are all able to recognize human limitations. So, this is a gentle reminder that I am available at any hour for a pastoral emergency (ie: a death, a hospital visit, suicidal ideation), and I do my best to be flexible to meet the complex schedules of LCCs membership, but my days off are Friday and Saturday. My contract is for 45-55 hours/week, which includes discernment and study, so if I know of an evening or weekend obligation, I try to compensate at another point during the week, and the best way to find me is by setting up an appointment by e-mail or text to be sure that I am available. You and our deepening relationship are important to me, and I will always work to be available as soon as I can be.

Love, your Pastor, but not an Octopus,

Pastor Joanna
Many of you know that I do a wide variety of work outside of LCC. I value the breadth and depth of this work, though scheduling can be vexing. Moreover, I value the many things I learn from these different freelance situations and from the people with whom I meet and work. Here are a couple of highlights and lessons learned.

A few days a week, I teach private lessons (piano, voice, and cello) at Lakewood Music Academy, which holds its recitals twice a year at LCC. I have a few younger students, but many are adults. Maybe they have come back to piano after not taking a lesson for decades, or they have been lifelong avid singers and want to learn how to sing with confidence and ease through good technique. It is a privilege to walk them through the process of learning and help them find the virtue of patience. It can be humbling to be a high-powered businessperson and then struggle to play more than two notes at a time on the piano. Many of my students are impatient to master their instrument and the songs they are playing or singing, and their impatience may rub off on me a bit. But, when I am inclined to lose patience with them, I redirect towards holding their hands and giving them the tools they need. Likewise, many of us at LCC, both our staff and congregation, are learning new things, as we continue to change and grow together. Patience may not always be easy to find, but it can reward us with a calm, focused outlook which can help us get where we’d like to go together.

I have also had the joy of working with the cast of our youth musical, You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown this past month, and have been playing for various Lakewood middle school choral groups, ably led by our own Lisa Richards. It has been inspiring to see the teamwork she fosters in them. Middle school years can be quite disorienting for our youth, with the onset of puberty and increasing academic and social demands made on them. Often, all they have is each other, and to see them working hard together and supporting each other to make music as a team has been a pleasure. Charlie Brown’s cast, too, was a fabulous team (sometimes literally), and props to Doug Bailey, Karen Lee, Lindy Warren, and everyone else involved for helping that team coalesce and create the energetic, excellent production I hope so many of you had a chance to enjoy. I would love to encourage us all to take a page from these bright young folk, and keep figuring out how we can be amazing members of a team, whether at church, at home, or at work, all the while balancing the group’s needs with speaking up for what we ourselves need to be the best we can.

Lastly, I had the enriching experience of helping another faith community through a hard time recently. A local Lutheran church’s music director was in the hospital during Holy Week (he is feeling better now), and unable to play for its Good Friday service. They say that “fools rush in,” so on a day’s notice, I went there to familiarize myself with the organ and the service hymns, only to learn that they had a small, determined choir and handbell choir, both of which needed direction during the service. This was potentially a daunting situation, but I summoned a fair amount of inner courage and pluck, and was relatively pleased with how the service went. I share this not to pat myself on the back, but to emphasize how setting aside my fears and anxieties allowed me to lead and guide everyone else in the room through this poignant service. Rev. Joanna just preached this past Sunday on a similar topic! Whatever life is throwing at us any given day, which can certainly be considerable, we can always find ways to channel the strength we all have within us to survive and even thrive.

Thanks for reading,

Ben

WORSHIP FOR ALL AGES

Sunday, May 5th will be our next Worship for All Ages, which will include our monthly Food collection for the Hungry, Communion, and the Celebration of May Birthdays!

Every Sunday, during worship, childcare is provided in our Nursery for the youngest members of our church family (infants-4 year olds), and Activity Bags for other children are located in the back of the Sanctuary, if needed.

2018-2019 Faith Formation for Children/Youth:
This month, we will be winding down our Faith Formation for children Preschool-12th grades for the 2018-2019 Church Year. What a WONDERFUL year it has been, filled with the sharing/discussing of so many great stories from the Bible, creative crafts, uplifting music, and the development of, what I hope will be, lasting friendships filled with understanding, love, trust, and forgiveness.

All children/youth will sing during our Mother’s Day Worship on Sunday, May 12th, and our final FF meeting will be Sunday, May 19th after we THANK all of our Faith Formation Leaders for a spectacular year!

There will be FF on Sunday, June 16th (Father’s Day) so that the children/youth can make a special craft for their Dads or other special men in their lives. We will need three FF leaders to help on that day! (Let Patti k know if you are available!)

ELIZA JENNINGS WORSHIP

Thank You to the five teens and Charlie Begy for helping with our Eliza Jennings worship in April! As always, our friends at EJ praise our youth and the time they spend worshipping with them each month!

Tentatively, we will resume our monthly worship with the EJ residents in October.

Music and Faith Formation:

As you know, Music for our children has been integrated into our Faith Formation programming. We want our children to know that there are many ways we can praise the Lord and ask for help and guidance-through reading, art, dance, acting, and music.

All FF music groups will sing for their Moms and other special women in their lives during worship on Mother’s Day, May 12th!

THANK YOU, Noah, for an awesome year of Music for the young people of LCC!

Special Thanks to Ben Malkevitch and Doug Bailey for directing the heart-warming production of our 2019 LCC Youth Musical: You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown! We were “sold out” for each of the three performances and praised highly by each audience!

To all of the Cast, Crew, Parents, and general Supporters:

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!

UCC Camp and Mission Trip Commissioning will take place on Sunday, June 9th for UCC Camp and Sunday, July 7th for Mission Trip participants.

This is a way to let our young people know that even when they go away, they continue to be in our hearts and prayers.

Youth Group News

The Middle Schoolers had a fun-filled Youth Group meeting on April 28th as they gobbled down pizza and participated in a Church Scavenger Hunt.

Our High School Youth Group will meet on Sunday, May 5th from 6:00-7:15 in the Youth Room.

Check your emails for a last combined Youth Group meeting/cook-out!

Please join us to THANK Sarah and Mike Banyasz for ALL of the wonderful experiences they have provided for our Youth these past 8 years on Sunday, June 30th after worship.

Helping others find life in water...

This church year, the Children’s Offering each Sunday will be donated to the United Church of Christ Mozambique (UCCM), a UCC organization that helps bring clean water to areas of Mozambique through the construction of cisterns for communities in need of clean/safe drinking water. The LCC Outreach Team has committed to making this happen for these communities through our support.

When you use these envelopes, please be sure to put your child’s name on the back so that we can add this contribution to your Family’s Pledge for the year. Also, this gives your child a chance to feel good about giving, when he/she puts the envelope in the Miracle Jar each Sunday.

As we wind down another successful school year, we want to take a special moment to thank all of the wonderful mothers on Mothers Day! You are what makes our world a happy, warm and safe place.

We also want to bid Patti Komperda a fond farewell. Patti has been a vital part of keeping our wonderful school connected with our wonderful church.

Thank you, Patti K, for everything you have done for us at Haynes. We appreciate your hard and dedication without question.

Our LCC 2018-2019 Faith Journey Scripture this year is taken from the Book of Amos 5:24, “But let justice roll down like the waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.”

As we enter into a favorite season for many in NE Ohio—SUMMER—let us continue to keep in mind all of the beauty in God’s Creation-plants, animals, and people. How can we be the best stewards God intended by always considering and practicing justice and righteousness for all?

The 4th/5th grade Faith Formation class is selling notecards, crafted by the youth, as a fundraiser for two causes the students focused on this year in our FF class. The first is aligned with Our Church’s Wider Mission in Mozambique to support the work to provide clean water sources. The second is a local organization, GiGi’s Playhouse, on Detroit Ave in Lakewood. GiGi’s Playhouse strives to change the way the world views Down syndrome and to work with families, schools and communities to ensure that all people with Down syndrome are accepted and embraced.

The 4th/5th graders will be selling their packets of notecards for $10.00, though additional donations are welcome, after church through the month of May. All proceeds will be donated to these two causes.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!
LCC collected 2 bags and Haynes collect 9 bags of food to donate in April to Lakewood Community Services Center!
The first Sunday of the month is our food collection day.
Items can be dropped off in the baskets lining the West Clifton Hallway.

God in Our Lives
The Adult Faith Formation Team invites you to join us on Tuesday, May 14th at 7:00pm for God in Our Lives. Laura Hampton, Outreach Liaison to the Executive Team, will share her spiritual journey: her relationship with the church and God from her childhood through the present day and reflect on what brought her and her family to LCC. All are welcome!

Please let the church office know if you need childcare and we will make arrangements for care (216-221-9555).

The Adult Faith Formation Team, in keeping with the Mission Statement of our church, hopes you will take the initiative to venture out, learn more, and come back ready to discuss with your church family the questions/thoughts/worries/and suggestions you have to the all-pervasive problem of the many injustices imposed upon marginalized people-young and old- not only in the U.S., but around our world. This year, we will extend our Sacred Conversation to include two additional groups of marginalized people as we explore Gender Identity and Prison Reform.

The Lenten Book Discussion of The Last Week by Marcus Borg, Maundy Service, and Easter Worship could not have been more meaningful and uplifting! Thank You All for your participation, planning, and devotion to your Faith Journeys and LCC!

FRIEND’S CIRCLE EVENTS

Friends Circle (a multi-generational women’s group) shared a Dessert/Craft Evening with the residents of Eliza Jennings Nursing Home on Tuesday, April 30th. Judy Foote guided the residents in the making of a Scrapbook Page and all of us enjoyed a scrumptious dessert! It was such a success that Friend’s Circle will be adding this as a recurring event.

Friend’s Circle’s next event is Thursday, June 6th, we will volunteer at LCC’s Community Meal.

Please contact the office at 216-221-9555 or lccstaff@lcc-church.org to be added to the email list.

Book: Carry On (c 2017)

Margaret Barr will lead the review and discussion of the memoir Carry On (c 2017) by Lisa Fenn. When award-winning ESPN producer Lisa Fenn returned to her hometown for a story about two wrestlers at one of Cleveland’s toughest public high schools, she had no idea the trip would change her life. Both young men were disadvantaged students with significant physical disabilities. Dartanyon Crockett was legally blind. Leroy Sutton lost both legs at eleven when he was run over by a train. Brought together by wrestling, they had developed a brother-like bond as they worked to overcome their disabilities. Author Fenn and the two young men formed an unlikely family of three. This powerful memoir is one of love, hope, faith, and strength—a story about an unusual family and the courage to carry on, even in the most extraordinary of circumstances.

Looking ahead to June: We will gather for luncheon (12:00pm) and annual celebration of books on June 12th at Legacy Restaurant and Grille (Sweetbriar Golf Club) in Avon Lake. The address is 750 Jaycox Road. We will finalize our book selections and discussion leaders for 2019-2020.

Reminder: Don’t forget to sign up on the West Clifton bulletin board or email/call Kathy MacDougall (216-228-1975)

meeting has been changed to:
Tuesday, May 28th at 7:00pm in the Parlor
Please confirm your attendance with Patti K

The Search Team for the position of Director of or Associate Pastor for Children, Youth, and Family Ministries hit the ground running a couple months ago. We were grateful to have the hard work of the exec team and the previous search team so that the church profile was already essentially completed. This has significantly lightened our load, compared to the previous search team in 2016-2017. The profile was reviewed by the Living Waters Association and our Association’s General Minister, Nayiri Karjian.

After review and posting, the search team received 15 applications and profiles, has selected candidates to review, and has already conducted some interviews. We feel very confident in our pool of applicants. “Patience is a Virtue” at this stage of the process. Please keep the LCC Search Team in your prayers.

FAMILY PROMISE SPRING SHOWER—Extended to May 12

Lakewood Congregational Church has a long history of partnering with Family Promise in their mission to inspire and empower homeless families to transform their lives, become self-sufficient and fulfill their promise. For many years, we housed homeless families in our building for four weeks every year. A few years ago, they moved to a permanent site on E. 152nd Street where families in a housing crisis are provided shelter for up to 90 days along with case management services during their stay and after they move out. The agency helps over 100 homeless families each year secure independent housing and the means to sustain it.

You can help Family Promise by being a part of our Spring Shower thru May 12. We will be collecting twin sheets (new or gently used), twin blankets, new pillows, laundry baskets, laundry soap, toilet cleaner and toilet brush, multi purpose spray cleaner, 13 gallon garbage bags, paper towels and toilet paper. If you don’t have time to shop, you may also make a donation to LCC indicating it is for Family Promise and we will purchase these items for donation. There are baskets by the parlor for you to drop off your donation.
